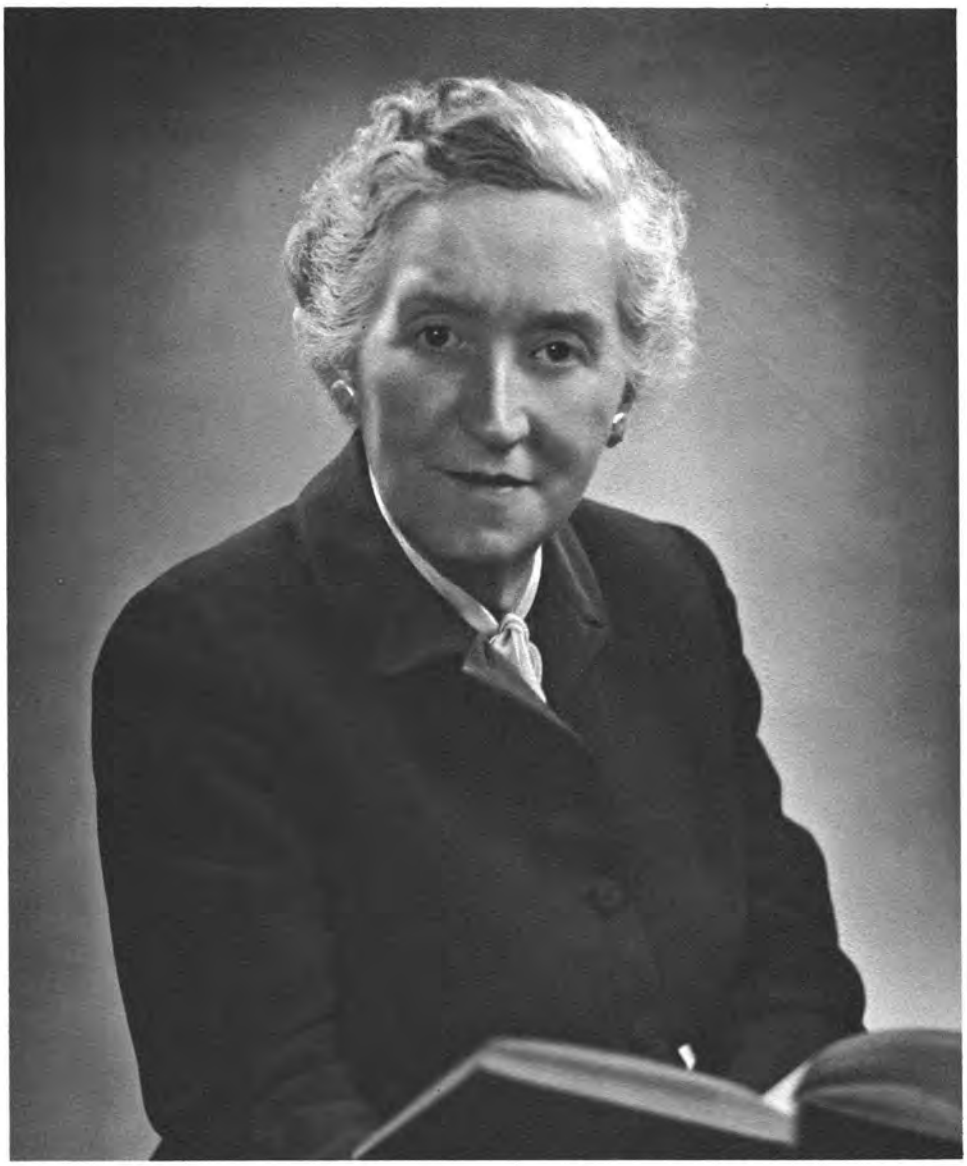
MRS. MARY CLEMENT

On October 10, 1959, after eighteen years of devoted service to this community and to the pupils and the staff of this school, our School Nurse, Mrs. Mary Clement died very suddenly. It was a tragic loss to all of us, to her family, and to her many friends.

At the time of her death, the idea was born that the finest tribute to her memory would be some means of helping young people.

Spontaneous offers began coming in to the family of Mrs. Clement. Before long a sizable sum had accumulated, and a committee had been set up to plan how this money could best be used.

Since Mary Clement had been so active and successful in nursing, it was decided that the money should be used to help students who are planning to enter the nursing field. So now, each year, some Monroe Senior who is in the upper half of his class and who has been accepted at a recognized school of nursing will be helped financially because so many people loved and respected Mrs. Clement.



MISS MARY A. SHEEHAN

The quality of true greatness is rare.

Most persons live their entire years without knowing a great man or woman.

To be great, one needs to have a profound understanding of and respect for others.

We at Monroe know someone

. . . who with selfless devotion has led and inspired us,

. . . who has shared with us our joys, our personal successes,

. . . who with genuine concern has given us encouragement whenever we have needed it,

. . . who has made us proud of our school and of our being called 'Monroeites'.

She understands us and respects us.

We the Senior Class of 1960, to acknowledge the many ways we have benefited from the leadership of Mary A. Sheehan, dedicate our yearbook to her.

Miss Sheehan is retiring as principal of Monroe this year. Our wish for her is that she enjoy many years of retirement, years as happy as those she has made for us at Monroe.

FOREWORD

Our 1960 Monrolog is a pictorial record of a significant year in our school's history. Behind these pictures lies the true spirit of Monroe, a spirit growing greater with every achievement. As you read through Monrolog, look deeply into the pictures; you will sense that we have been molded by an impressive heritage. Here are we who, hungry for knowledge and attainment, are striving toward values that are worthy and noble.

Monroe is a great part of us all, a part that lives and will always live. Our school not only has opened the way to the future, but also has guided us through the uncertainties of our past. Here we have found inspiration to motivate us onward. Yet, as we benefit from our school we must return to it something of value—our best efforts. In this past year the excellence attained represents our striving to meet this obligation.

Look into the pictures in our Monrolog for 1960, consider the rich heritage of our school, the dynamics of its present, and the values it has infused into our characters.

"Vic," who is gifted in many ways, here puts the finishing touches on a portrait of one of his classmates, Ann Harvey.

Always interested in the heritage of America, "Vic" is found at a display showing Abraham Lincoln as he aged during the Civil War period.

"If men and women are to understand each other, to enter into each other's nature with mutual sympathy, and to become capable of genuine comradeship, the foundation must be laid in youth."

THE BUILDERS

All are architects of Fate,
  Working in these walls of Time;
Some with massive deeds and great,
  Some with ornaments of rhyme.

Nothing useless is, or low;
  Each thing in its place is best;
And what seems but idle show
  Strengthens and supports the rest.

For the structure that we raise,
  Time is with materials filled;
Our todays and yesterdays
  Are the blocks with which we build.

Truly shape and fashion these;
  Leave no yawning gaps between;
Think not, because no man sees,
  Such things will remain unseen.

In the elder days of Art,
  Builders wrought with greatest care
Each minute and unseen part;
  For the gods see everywhere.

Let us do our work as well,
  Both the unseen and the seen;
Make the house where gods may dwell
  Beautiful, entire, and clean.

Else our lives are incomplete,
  Standing in these walls of Time,
Broken stairways, where the feet
  Stumble, as they seek to climb.

Build today, then, strong and sure,
  With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
  Shall tomorrow find its place.

Thus alone can we attain
  To those turrets, where the eye
Sees the world as one vast plain,
  And one boundless reach of sky.

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

All in Monroe recognize the true dedication of Mr. Morris Ball to his work. Yet, we who have worked closely with him on publications know that he is more than simply dedicated. He is responsible for the high journalistic standards set in MONROLOG and Monroe Life. Moreover he is the inspiration to those working on these publications. It is only fitting, therefore, that we should extend our personal thanks to him on this page. Since we can never thank him enough, this tribute remains unfinished . . .
